

DR KOUROSH TAVAKOLI

CHANGING YOUR NOSE SHAPE

A COSMETIC ENHANCEMENT PROCEDURE THAT CAN BRING ABOUT AN ALMOST IMMEDIATE FACIAL IMPROVEMENT

Rhinoplasty represents perhaps the greatest fusion of art and science in the field of plastic surgery. Sculpting a new nose not only requires a thorough knowledge of nasal anatomy and function but also full appreciation of the patient's sense of beauty and ethnicity.

Although most patients are concerned about the "Michael Jackson" nose job, a few would disagree with the impressive results achieved in a well-orchestrated rhinoplasty as seen recently in the American pop star Ashlee Simpson. Rhinoplasty aims to improve the nasal tip and projection. Furthermore, by removing the hump one can reduce both the size and length of the nose. Natural rhinoplasty is a by product of careful patient selection and planning, accurate operative technique and thorough postoperative care.

Most cosmetic rhinoplasty procedures are performed as day procedures. Patients need to take usually a week off work to allow for swelling and bruising to subside.

Patients who have undergone treatment. Results may vary from person to person.

FOR MORE INFORMATION

DR KOUROSH TAVAKOLI, FRACS PLASTIC SURGEON AND LUXE MEDISPA

The Hills District, North Sydney, Eastern Suburbs, NSW Tel: 1300 368 107

www.plasticsurgerysydney.com.au